

"Bogdan's Journey" by Michal Jaskulski and Lawrence Loewinger

Wednesday 25 January 2017, 19:00

Runtime: 90'

Kielce, Poland was the site of Europe's last Jewish pogrom—in 1946. Townspeople killed over 40 Holocaust survivors.

In a free Poland, Bogdan Białek, a Catholic Pole, journalist and psychologist, emerges to talk publicly about the pogrom.

The film will be followed by an interactive discussion with:

- Rory Keane - Head of United Nations Liaison Office for Peace and Security,
- Daniel Schwammenthal Director, American Jewish Committee (AJC) Transatlantic Institute.

The film has English subtitles and has a run time of 90 minutes
