

From Academy Award® winning director Roger Ross Williams, LIFE, ANIMATED is the inspirational story of Owen Suskind, a young man who was unable to speak as a child until he and his family discovered a unique way to communicate by immersing themselves in the world of classic Disney animated films. Owen's story is a moving testament to the many ways in which stories can serve as a means of persevering through the dark times, leading us all toward the light.

Ciné-ONU was proud to present the Oscar nominated film Life, Animated to mark World Social Justice Day at the Italian Cultural Institute, Brussels, on February 14th to an audience of over 300, with support from the United Nations Office for the High Commissioner of Human Rights Europe (UNOHCHR), Autism Europe and Autisme Centraal.

More information about autism spectrum condition can be found on the following websites:
We have also more events based on our iLick or Facebook