

21 March - “L'Etranger” follows Moussa Cissokho’s move from Senegal to Brussels, where he becomes a football coach and fosters team spirit within the multicultural team of BX Brussels.

His trust and support for the players ultimately leads to success, demonstrating that team sports and compassionate individuals can be essential for integration.

Screening the Brussels-based film, Cin e-ONU was proud to partner with the Government of Flanders to raise awareness of the United Nation’s ‘Together Campaign’ at Cinema Galeries, Brussels on 21 March 2017.
