

United Nations Depository Library Programme

UN Depository Libraries in Europe

Since 1946, the Dag Hammarskjöld Library of the United Nations Secretariat in New York has arranged for the distribution of United Nations documents and publications to users around the world through its depository library system. At present, there are more than 356 depository libraries in over 135 countries maintaining United Nations material from the date of designation as depository to the present. The general public can consult the material free of charge at any depository library. All addresses are available on the UN website at <https://library.un.org/content/depository-libraries-directory>

UN Sales Publications are available on the UN website shop.un.org as well as a list of Sales

UN Depository Libraries (<http://un.org/depot>) and UN Depository Libraries (<http://un.org/depot>) are available on the UN website.
