UN Peacekeeping Capstone Doctrine

http://pbpu.unlb.org/pbps/Library/Capstone_Doctrine_ENG.pdf

The Department of Peacekeeping Operations Best Practices Section has posted the UN Peacekeeping Capstone Doctrine. According to the site, "To develop this landmark document, DPKO engaged in a wide consultative process involving a series of "expert-level", regional workshops, which brought together representatives of the major troop and police contributors, donor countries, UN staff and leading academics. Consultations were also held with Member States and UN system partners in New York to ensure that their views and concerns were fully taken into account. The document constitutes the first attempt in over a decade to clarify the nature and scope of UN peacekeeping operations for the benefit of peacekeeping practitioners and partners. It should be considered a living document that will need to be updated and reviewed to reflect the evolution of UN peacekeeping operations."
