

The United Nations Regional Information Centre (UNRIC) is pleased to invite you to the second edition of CINÉ-ONU on Wednesday May 2nd from 16.00 to 18.30 at Residence Palace.

In part one, CINÉ-ONU will screen ‘Draw the line’ a documentary about the origins and ongoing success of the “Cartooning for Peace” initiative, which was launched by Kofi Annan and the French cartoonist Plantu in October 2006.

The documentary will be followed by a question and answer session with the film-maker Michel de Wouters and cartoonists Plantu (France) and Ali Dilem (Algeria).

In part two, we will screen “La Guerre et la Paix Selon l’ONU”, a film by Charles Bernard about MONUC: the United Nations Peacekeeping Mission in the Congo.

You will also have an opportunity to visit UNRIC’s library with information material about the United Nations.

UN staff will be available to answer your questions and to talk about their work and experience as representatives of the organization.
